Our Use of Cookies.

We may use cookies to keep track of our Site's users and for their protection and convenience. A "cookie" is a small text file containing alphanumeric characters that is stored on your computer and uniquely identifies your web browser. Cookies allow us to, for example, authenticate users, determine if this is a user's first visit to our Site, and remember our user's preferences. Most Internet browsers enable you to erase cookies from your computer hard drive, block all cookies, or receive a warning before a cookie is stored. Please be aware, however, that some of the Site's features or services may not function properly without cookies.

Our Security Practices

Although we strive to use our best effort to collect and store all your information in a secure manner and use them strictly in relation to this policy and your stated preference, we cannot provide absolute assurances against, and will not be liable for, any breaches of data security or confidentiality due to system failures or unauthorized access by third parties or other causes beyond our reasonable control.

Changes to The Terms

From time to time, International Cyber Taxes Inc D/B/A International Cyber Taxes may introduce new products and services to our customers that may require modifications to this policy. We reserve the right to modify this policy at any time by notifying our customers of a new or revised policy via the WIX Website. These modifications will only apply to personal data that you provide to us after the date of the modification. If we make material changes regarding personal information, we will update our statement and post a notice on the International Cyber Taxes Inc D/B/A International Cyber Taxes Website 30 days before the changes take effect.

Business Relationships with Third Parties

We agree that we will not share information with third parties who do not adhere to privacy policies and practices identical to ours.

Children's Online Privacy

The law requires parental consent to collect or use information from a child under 13. If you are a child under 13, please show this to your parents and do not use the online services of this institution without verifiable parental consent pursuant to the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act.
